PeCon 2024 – The Premier Model United Nations Conference!

The PES Model United Nations Society is delighted to host the 9th edition of The People's Conference (PeCon) on October 5th and 6th, 2024, at PES University, RR Campus, Bangalore. PeCon is one of South India's most prestigious MUN conferences, drawing the brightest and most ambitious students nationwide.

Why PeCon 2024 is Essential for Students

Develop Leadership and Diplomacy Skills:

PeCon 2024 provides an exceptional platform for students to refine their debate, diplomacy, and leadership skills. Participants will engage in thought-provoking simulations of real-world issues, negotiate with peers, and devise innovative solutions to global challenges. This conference is an invaluable opportunity for students to transition from delegates of today to leaders of tomorrow.

Challenge Your Intellectual Abilities:

Participating in PeCon 2024 will push the boundaries of students' analytical thinking, persuasive communication, and diplomatic strategy. This experience will challenge your intellect and broaden your horizons, leaving you inspired and better prepared for future endeavours.

Unmatched Experience and Networking:

PeCon is more than just a simulation; it is an exhilarating adventure that promises a transformative journey. With eight dynamic committees, including the debut of INTERPOL, this year's conference introduces new and exciting dimensions to the event. Participants will have the chance to connect with like-minded individuals, gain mentorship from experienced professionals, and build lasting relationships.

2. DISEC (Disarmament and International Security Committee)

DISEC deals with issues related to global security and the reduction of armaments. Its primary function is to maintain international peace by addressing disarmament, regulating arms transfers, preventing weapons proliferation, and finding solutions to emerging security threats.

Agenda:

Maritime security with emphasis on preventing piracy and illegal arms proliferation

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Sahit Bangre

Vice Chairperson: Raghavendra K

Moderator: Chinmay D

3. UNSC (United Nations Security Council)

The UNSC is tasked with maintaining international peace and security. It has the authority to impose sanctions, authorize military interventions, and establish peacekeeping operations. The council addresses immediate global threats and takes decisions that directly impact conflict zones and peace initiatives.

Agenda:

Deliberating on promoting stability in the Western-Sahara region with special reference to the extension of the mandate of MINURSO

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Adithya Prakash Nayak

Vice Chairperson: Sarthak Raktade

Moderator: Kumar Abhyuday

Name of Club: PES MUN Society

Faculty Advisor: Mr. Madhukar Narasimha

4. CCC (Continous Crisis Committee)

The Crisis Committee handles fast-paced, real-time emergencies and dynamic situations. Delegates must quickly respond to evolving scenarios, making decisions that have immediate impacts. The focus is on strategic thinking, adaptability, and collaboration to resolve complex crises, often with historical or fictional themes.

Agenda:

World War 2

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Sneha Lahurikar

Vice Chairperson: Vaishakh Prakash

Moderator: Mukund M

5. AIPPM (All India Political Parties Meet)

AIPPM simulates the workings of Indian political parties, engaging in debates on national issues. Delegates represent various political factions, debating policies and negotiating consensus on issues of national importance. The aim is to foster democratic dialogue, cooperation, and political strategy.

Agenda:

Analysing the national security implications of the political crisis in Bangladesh and its impact on India's border states

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Prithwijiit Banerjee

Vice Chairperson: Eshwar RA

Moderator: Sathvik Sharan

Name of Club: PES MUN Society

Faculty Advisor: Mr. Madhukar Narasimha

6. UNODC (United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime)

The UNODC focuses on combating global crime, including drug trafficking, human trafficking, and organised crime. The committee fosters international cooperation, helps develop effective laws, and works to implement strategies for curbing illicit activities that destabilise societies and violate human rights.

Agenda:

Addressing the impact of organised crime on human rights and sustainable development

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Aryan Sood

Vice Chairperson: Abhay Varma

Moderator: JV Shanmuga Teja

7. INTERPOL

INTERPOL is an international police organisation that facilitates cross-border law enforcement cooperation. It helps member countries combat transnational crime, terrorism, and emerging global threats. INTERPOL's role is to provide a platform for international collaboration and to foster information sharing and security cooperation among police forces worldwide.

Agenda:

Regulating the illegal use of emerging information and communication technologies to curb and counter criminal activities

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Chairperson: Kshitij Saha

Vice Chairperson: Achyutan VP

Moderator: Abhay Kumar

Name of Club: PES MUN Society

Faculty Advisor: Mr. Madhukar Narasimha

8. IPC (International Press Corps)

The International Press Corps simulates the role of journalists and media organisations in covering global events and holding governments accountable. It emphasises the role of free press in shaping public discourse, fact-checking, and reporting on key international issues.

The IPC will cover the proceedings of all other committees, reporting on the debates, resolutions, and decisions made. Journalists will publish articles, conduct interviews, and ensure transparency, helping to shape the narrative of the conference. Their role is crucial in highlighting the importance of media in international relations and governance, as they provide the public with accurate and timely information while holding leaders accountable for their actions.
